

A NEW FILM FROM DIRECTOR JIM JENNER
"The pigeon world's master story teller." The Racing Pigeon

Winners come and go. But a handful of pigeon fanciers magically win for decades. How do these great trainers stay on top in the toughest competition in the world?

This film lets you hear what great trainers think you need to be a good manager. They tell you where and when to buy foundation stock. They share what they look for in breeders and the principles of balance and form. They talk about the vital element of motivation and the incredible secret of "The Motor".

Using specialized micro-cameras, animated graphics and a highly entertaining documentary style, award-winning film-maker Jim Jenner shows you the inside story of some of the world's greatest pigeon racers.
